

The Blessing of Fathers

I have a
HERO
I call him
DAD

A good father is one of the most unsung, unpraised, unnoticed, and yet one of the most valuable assets in our society.

- Billy Graham

All About Dad

Don Gudeman (Left) reminisces about how they would go to town on Saturday Night to Thomas' Grocery Store and his dad would get them an ice cream. Soda pop was a treat they would get every week during the summer!

Alice Jacobson (left) says she lived by the railroad tracks and her dad told her to never go by the tracks because it was a bad part of town. She said, "Oh no Daddy of course I won't, but one day she went over on her tricycle across the tracks and down the hill. When she turned around she saw her dad. He didn't say anything, just gave her a look and she knew she was in trouble!

Allen Schrock (left) remembers a time when his father would buy Black Bing Cherries and give them to his neighbors and family.

He also remembers a time when his father bought bushels of Golden Delicious apples on his 50th birthday and handed them out to family and friends.

Wes Knapp (above) says that he would go fishing on the Mackinaw River when they had some extra time for a couple of hours in the morning or afternoon. His father worked for the State of Illinois as a maintenance supervisor. In the winter when it snowed Wes would go along with his dad at night and drive for him when he got tired.

Marian Wiegand (right) tells that her father came over from Germany to the United States.

She remembers how her father would take them to school with a horse and buggy. On one particularly rainy day her father asked the school teacher if she wanted a ride. She said yes, but the only place to sit was on her father's lap (and he was a preacher). She didn't bat an eye; she took her seat and happily rode to the school house out of the rain.

Talent may get you on the field, but it's effort and attitude that will keep you there.

- Babe Ruth -

Life is like baseball.

You will not hit every pitch.

Make the most of the ones you do.

There's no place like HOME

It's hard to beat a person who never gives up.

-Babe Ruth-

When life throws you a curve ball hit it out of the park.

Happy Birthday!
